

WHEREAS, The contributions of South Dakota's hunters and fishermen to recreation, conservation and the economy are deserving of special recognition; and,

WHEREAS, Sportsmen-conservationists are responsible for the founding of State Game and Fish Departments in all fifty States because they asked for requirements for licensing and the monies from these licenses used to support State conservation agencies; and,

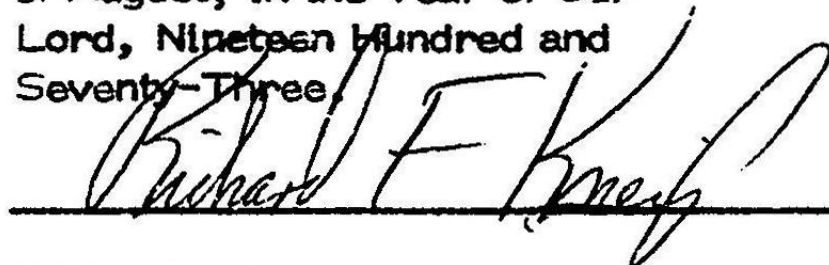

WHEREAS, Hunters and fishermen, unique in all the United States, asked that their fishing and hunting equipment be taxed and the monies used for land acquisition, research and habitat management for fish and wild life;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 22, 1973, as in South Dakota, and I urge all citizens to join with sportsmen-conservationists in a rededication to the wise use of our natural resources and their proper management for the benefit of future generations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this seventh day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Three.
